Live Stock Exchange to Meet.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 13.—Arrangements have been completed for the annual meeting of the National Live Stock Exchange here one week from today. The meeting promises to be the most important ever held by the organization. The subjects scheduled for consideration include the following: The expediency of requiring all stockholders of corporations to hold memberships; the advisability of doing away with the traveling solicitor, charges among all exchanges; the establishment of a commercial credit system, and the advisability of giving the interstate commerce commission increased powers.

Amnesty for Derouleds.

Paris, July 13.—It is semi-officially announced that Paul Derouleds, the famous irascible, duelist and journalist, who was banished from France for ten years for alleged participation in a plot to overthrow the republic, is to be included in the general amnesty which will be granted tomorrow on the occasion of the national holiday. Since his banishment from France Derouleds has been residing in Spain, chiefly at San Sebastian, where he became well acquainted with King Alfonso, and it is reported that his permission to return to France is largely due to a good word spoken for him by the young Spanish sovereign on the occasion of the latter's recent visit to President Loubet.

ELKS PAY TRIBUTE TO LATE THOS. HUGHES

The midsummer meeting of Albuquerque lodge No. 461, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, was held last night at Elks' hall. The meeting was very largely attended.

The meeting opened with a very touching memorial service in honor of the late Thomas Hughes, who during his later years was one of the most active members of the lodge. These services were in the form of the ritual of the order, and were conducted by the officers of the lodge.

The memorial service was followed by the initiation of three new members, namely, John P. Fletcher, of Albuquerque; J. L. Hubbard, of Ganado, Ariz., and Frank E. Moore, Mexico City, Mexico.

PROMINENT EASTERNER VISITS ALBUQUERQUE

J. S. Lanning, of Ashbury Park, N. J., receiver of the Monmouth Trust & Safe Deposit company, who has been at Santa Fe the past week in the interests of the company, which is a creditor of the Fraser Mountain Copper company, of Amizett, Taos county, arrived in Albuquerque from the north last night and will remain in the city a day or so on business.

This is not Mr. Lanning's first trip to New Mexico, as he spent some time here during the winter of 1903. However, he stated today that he noted a great improvement since his last visit, and is quite enthusiastic about the future of the territory.

After attending to the business which called him to this city, he will return east.

ROSA BERRY NOW STARRING IN MANILA

The many friends in this city of Mrs. Rosa Berry, will be pleased to learn that this talented actress is now making a great hit at the Paz theater in Manila, P. I., with her Japanese-American comic opera, "Naughty Miss Chrysanthemum."

It will be remembered that Mrs. Berry wrote this piece during her residence in Albuquerque a year or so ago. The same was set to music by Prof. Di Mauro and staged for the first time here. It proved very successful and is having a fine run in Manila at the leading theaters of the island capital.

In a letter to The Evening Citizen, Mrs. Berry states that she does not know when she will get back to Albuquerque, and wishes to be remembered to all her friends.

BROWNS WILL SOON SPORT NEW UNIFORMS

Manager Houston, of the Browns, announced today that as soon as the weather moderates a little a big benefit dance will be given in order to raise money to purchase new uniforms for the ball boys. The dance will be given before the fair tournament opens in the middle of September, and the Albuquerque team will then be able to sport their new uniforms during the fair week.

They will be dark brown in color, with stockings and caps to match, and the boys are expected to make quite a hit when they make their first appearance in the new suits.

TRAIN OF TOURISTS HERE TWO HOURS

This afternoon at 1 o'clock a special train of three Pullmans, a dining car and two baggage cars, arrived in the city from the east. The special was in charge of Mrs. A. E. Yerex, of Chicago, and had on board in the neighborhood of 100 tourists, who are making a trip to the Portland exposition.

They are taking in all the points of interest in the Southwest, and spent two hours in this city, while here, many of the tourists took a trolley ride to the old town and Barajas, and were highly pleased with what they saw of Albuquerque, as one of them remarked that he had no idea this city was so modern.

Yesterday the excursionists spent a few days at Santa Fe, and tomorrow they will stop at the Grand Canyon for a couple of days. They left at 5 o'clock for the west.

GRAND MASTER WILL INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

Alexander Bowie, grand master of the grand lodge of L. O. O. F. of New Mexico, was an arrival from Santa Fe last night. The grand master will attend a meeting of Harmony lodge No. 1 tonight and install the officers for the ensuing year. After the installation of officers, Grand Master Bowie will exemplify the secret work of the order. The evening will close with a pleasant reception which will be participated in by the members of the lodge and their wives.
